I am pleased to write this letter of support for you. I have been most impressed with your dedication and conscientious attention to all of Lee's needs. I believe that you have formed not only a great working relationship with Lee but also have become a trusted friend to him. You have worked diligently to help Lee find appropriate work in a field that he loves and continue to mentor and monitor his progress. You are an integral part of Lee's life that, I am not sure, where we would be today had you not been around to help us through this process.

I know that neither Lee or myself would ever be adequately able to thank you enough for all your help.

Sincerely,

Carol
